

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

mediterraneo collection

Mediterraneo, CTA® new textile collection takes inspiration from the amazing isles that are lightly touched by the Mediterranean Sea thus creating an original styles reinterpretation.

Mediterraneo articles are drenched in delicate perfumes and lively colors that tell the entire story of these powerful and strong sea lands enchanted by the capturing natural shades and its warm pervading atmospheres.

This collection was born to satisfy all kind of decorative needs with natural colors, delicate shades in order to make any setting a comfortable and enjoyable place.

Mediterraneo collection was created for those who love recalling our land's traditions, souls and trends. You will surely notice how Mediterraneo collection is able to donate all the freshness and shades of a surprisingly contemporary time.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Caprera

Caprera is one of the most beautiful isles of La Maddalena's Archipelago of the Sardinia east coast. It has been declared a national sea natural reserve and it is famous for being the last place where Giuseppe Garibaldi lived his last 20 years. The fabric inspired by Caprera island is characterized by an embroidery with a taffeta application on a double layered polyester background in the pattern.

It is made of 81% PA 15% PL 4% LI. Available in two different color variants white and dove grey in a 320/325 cm width.

Filicudi

This Filicudi window treatment curtain is named after the Sicilian Isle belonging to the Aeolian Islands Archipelago. Fossa Felci Mount, a 773 mt. high extinguished volcano dominates the entire Isle. In addition to it, there is a bunch of other seven long time dormant volcanos.

Filicudi is a fil coupè jacquard 66% PA 34% PL available in four different colour variants ranging from white, ice, dove grey and grey. It is characterized by an all over pattern, that is the ideal choice for contemporary style settings. Available in a 315/320 cm width.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Cipro

Cipro fabric line takes inspiration from the Mediterranean third biggest island, which is situated in its eastern part.

We are speaking about a double face effect jacquard 60% PL 36% AC 4% LI characterized by a contemporary inspired pattern ideal for any decorative purpose.

It comes in a 295/300 cm width.

Available in four different color variants: white, natural, grey and dove grey.

Corfù

Corfu' is a Greek Island situated in the Ionian Sea, opposite to the Epirus coasts (present-day Albania)

Second Ionian isle after Cefalonia for its dimensions, Corfu' is one of the most beautiful and visited Greek islands of the Mediterranean Sea.

The window treatment curtain of Mediterraneo new collection is a double face effect Jacquard 60% PL 36% AC 4% LI characterized by a contemporary inspired pattern thus making it ideal for decorative purposes. Available in a 295/300 cm width, it comes in four different color variants such as ecru, dove grey, cocoa and blue-green.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Keros

Keros window treatment curtain takes inspiration from the Small Cyclades Islands. Uninhabited and unknown to the most of the Italians. Nevertheless, Keros is one of the most important Cyclades isles for its archeological history and heritage. Keros is a devorè window treatment curtain with a fake lead laminate print in a 295/300 cm width.

It is a blend of 75% VI 25% PL and it is available in three color variants: silver, gold and bronze. Ideal for a modern contemporary setting.

Stromboli

The nuances of this fabric recall the colors of this active volcano that gives the name to this wonderful Island.

Stromboli is a 100% PL fabric, its appearance recalls jute cloths. It comes in a 295/300 cm width and it is available in 13 different color variants ranging from white to natural and from grey to dove grey.

A lamè yarn, thus making it shiny and lively is Stromboli valueness.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Zante

Zante (Zakynthos) is a Greek Island belonging to the Aeolian Islands Archipelago. It is very famous because illustrious poet Ugo Foscolo was born here, so he dedicated a wonderful sonnet to his island called "A Zacinto" (To Zakynthos). Another famous beach in Zakynthos is the Shipwreck beach, (Navagio) exclusively accessible by boats. Zante, a double face fabric with a linen effect on one side and a satin effect on the other, is a blend of 40% PL 28% LYOCELL 20% AC 12% WO. It is available in a 300/310 cm width in more than twelve color variants.

Favignana

It is about an amazing isle belonging to Egadi Islands Archipelago, Sicily. Its name derives from Latin "favonio", a word Romans used to name the hot wind spreading from the West.

We can find the same warm atmosphere of this amazing Sicilian isle in its Favignana fabric, a striped jacquard available in 4 different color variants: natural, dove grey, grey and charcoal grey. It is a tubic fabric made of 85% LI 15% PL, it comes in a 280/285 cm width.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Lampedusa

We are talking about an Italian Island belonging to the Pelagic Islands Archipelago, Sicily. Lampedusa, a borderland between two worlds, encloses all the contrasting environmental features belonging to very different countries, such as, Africa and Europe. Just to be more specific we need to add these details: Lampedusa is 210 km far from Sicilian Coasts and it's only 152 km far from African ones. It is made in 70% LI 20% PL 10% VI. Lampedusa is a tubic jacquard textile with an Airo finishing thus making it soft to our touch. It also has a double face effect characterized by a contemporary pattern with a flounce motif softening upwards. Available in a 295/300 cm width in three different color variants: ivory, dove grey and grey.

Cervi

We are talking about an island situated between Peloponnese and Cerigo. Anciently, this island used to be closely attached to the mainland with an isthmus so that it used to be a peninsula.

Venetians named this island Cervi simply because its shape recalled a deer head. Cervi donates to its visitors some of the most amazing sand beaches all over Greece. This wonderful place gave inspiration to CTA® in the creation of Cervi fabric. It is a 100% PL and it is proposed into two micro weaves with a soft finishing.

Available in 4 different color variants: natural, dove grey, grey and cocoa in a 295/300 cm width.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Creta

Among Mediterranean islands Crete is the biggest and most populated Greek island, it is the fifth for its dimensions after Sicily, Sardinia, Cyprus and Corsica.

Crete has got more than 1000 km coast where beautiful white sand beaches are, along with rocky shores and shaded isthmuses. Same as the island that names it, Crete unit window treatment curtain express all the refinement and simplicity in its crinkled effect. It comes in a wide range of color variants made of 42 options. This 100% PL fabric is available in a 295/300 cm width.

Chio

This window treatment curtain recalls the colorful Chio Island situated in the east Aegean.

It is characterized by white sand beaches with cristal clear sea.

The namesake window treatment curtain proposed by CTA® gives us a wide choice of 5 color variants drawing inspiration from sea shades and land tones (white, ivory, dove grey, grey and aviation blue), in a blend of 63% PAN 37% PL. Chio is available in a 295/300 cm, with lead line.

CENTRO TENDAGGI ARREDAMENTO
Italian Textile

Salina

Italian Island belonging to the Aeolian Islands Archipelago, which is, in the first instance, formed by six old volcanos. Mount Fossa delle Felci and Mount Porri are, respectively, the first and the third highest mountains of the Archipelago. Salina is the name CTA® donated to this wonderful fabric line characterized by a lamè yarn made in a blend of 66% PAN 31% PL, 3% LI. Delicate and refined nuances such as white, natural, dove grey, grey, gold and cocoa are available in a 295/300 cm width.

Paros

Paros, one of the biggest islands of Cyclades Archipelago, is very popular for a particular white marble called Parian marble.

Paros is a 100% Trevira CS tubic modern and extremely refined window treatment curtain. It donates a wonderful touch to the setting making it very original and elegant. It is available in delicate nuances such as white, natural, beige, dove grey and grey, are available in a 275 cm width version.

